How we collect pupil information

Pupil data is essential for our school's operational use. We obtain pupil information for the start of each academic year through our 'new pupil' registration forms. We also collect any changes to pupil information through update forms during the academic year as part of our data administration process to keep the information we hold as up-to-date as possible. We also collect information through secure common file transfers (CTFs) which contain relevant information (e.g. name, date of birth, attendance details) about our new pupils from their previous schools.

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or you have a choice in this.

The lawful basis on which we hold and use this information

We collect and use pupil information under the legal basis of public interest as an educational setting/school with the delegated task of educating and safeguarding the children in our care and under a legal obligation which necessitates our school making statutory data returns to the Department for Education (DfE) and our Local Authority in accordance with items c) and e) as described in Article 6, UK GDPR:

- c) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;
- e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;

The data we collect relating to medical health information is necessary to protect the vital interests of the child so that we can ensure a child's medical needs are properly addressed and catered for.

We also acknowledge that some of the data items collected are deemed as Special Category Personal Data and that item g) processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest as described in Article 9, UK GDPR, is the condition under which our school collects and processes the following:

- ethnic origin data (as part of school census)
- religious belief (as part of holiday planning and/or where formal links with faith-based organisations)
- health (i.e. medical data which may include allergies or other medical conditions and associated medical procedure)
- biometric data for identification (where IT, security or catering system requires it)

We also apply similar processing safeguards to other data we hold which, although not specifically identified under GDPR, we treat as sensitive:

- learning information (such as behaviour and special education needs)

Data collected under consent

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory (under the lawful basis described above), there may be some additional information we may ask for on a voluntary basis to support an educational or safeguarding function or where a data item collected is to be used for an additional purpose that extends beyond the lawful bases of legal obligation or public interest; (for example, photographs for our school's website or sharing a contact email address with a third-party software the school has a contract with).

Any voluntary Information asked for will be carefully considered and processed in accordance with items a) and b) as described in Article 6, UK GDPR:

- a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes;
- b) processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;

For all voluntary data or changes to purpose, we will ask you for your explicit consent. As a parent/carer you can change your decision to grant or withdraw consent at any time for any of the data items collected under consent. If you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting our Data Protection Lead at Mr Webb, Assistant Headteacher.

There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your information rights request depending on the reasons why we are processing it (e.g. right to erasure does not apply when the lawful basis for processing relates to a legal obligation and/or public task).

To request access to your personal information or to your child's educational record, you can make a Subject Access Request (SAR). We will contact you to acknowledge receipt of your request at our first opportunity and will agree a date with you by which time we can provide the information requested. Additionally, if the nature of the request is complex, we will aim to reach a mutually agreed alternative time period.

How long we keep personal information

We hold pupil data for the period determined appropriate for the different types of data we hold.

We will keep information for the minimum period necessary in accordance with DfE's data retention recommendations which take into account legal and safeguarding considerations linked to the types of data held.
